

Please continue to allow XM Radio to provide local traffic and weather. This is an awesome service that the local Radio stations cannot provide on a continuous basis in the way that XM provides. I can tune to XM traffic and know within two minutes what the problems are, whereas with regular radio, I have to tune around from station to station for fifteen minutes, by which time, I'm already stuck in traffic.

Thank you,

Ross Henning